WRESTLING

This year's Warrior Wrestlers were: Mike Lanier, Dennis Sturgell, Aaron Martin, Forrest Kennel, Scott Wilson, Nick Bolin, Brian Eldridge, Matt Horner, John McDaniel, Steven Stratton, Travis Peregoy, Tony Quesada, Dave Simmons, and Curt Tayer.

Aaron Martin is close to a nearfall.

Warriors Take Second in State

The Warrior Wrestlers traveled over 3,000 miles in search of 17 wins and 1 loss. Highlights included 11-0 preseason record (best ever pre-season record), a winning championship trophy at Joseph 18 team invitational, 4th in State at the Oregon Classic, and ending the year with a second place trophy at the OSAA State tournament.

Eight wrestlers qualified for state including sophomores: Jay Bjaranson, Brian Cantrell, Steve Stratton, John McDaniel, and Wolfy (Steve) Simmons. Juniors: — Trask Bergerson, and Seniors: Dennis Sturgell and Mike Larson. Bergeson, Sturgell, Cantrell and Larson were District Champions. It was a great season for the Warriors.

Trask Bergeson pins his opponent with a leg ride.

WRESTLING MEMORIES

I remember wrestling practice as a hard, tough, learning experience as a freshman. This year was a little easier by knowing what to expect.

There were a lot of funny things that happened this year. Bill Barber forgot his sleeping bag and was forced to cover himself with extra clothes to keep warm. Brian Cantrell could never seem to hold on to his gear for more than 5 minutes at a time. He managed to lose enough singlets and headgear to go over the 100 dollar mark. Brian lost everything from tournament passes to his girlfriend's phone number. At district, a couple of people wanted cold cereal for breakfast. Mr. Warren almost went into labor, and made us eat the breakfast the school was serving. And last but not least, Woof broke his paw in practice and couldn't wrestle. He came to watch and eat.

John McDaniel

HOMECOMING WEEK

"Return of the Nerds?" No, it's just Juniors Marie Ford and Jennifer Bartling showing their school spirit on Nerd Day.

Escort Joel Howatt looks a little nervous about crowning Princess Misty Monson.

You know it's a tough world when you have to roll on the ground to be somebody and boy are they somebody.

The highlight of Homecoming week is always the Friday night game. This year the Warriors fought proudly against Portland Christian on October 21, 1988.

The nerd craze seems to be contagious! It's jumped to Tracy Bergerson in a matter of seconds. Who's next?

Steve Barnard. A nerd by any other name.

"Great Balls of Fire!"

The Senior class cheer on their mates during a competition.

Tena Vert is in hysterics as Jason Doan tries on her extra uniform.

The last event of the week was the Homecoming Dance. This year's theme was Kokomo. The theme was selected from many entries. The school decided this popular song title fit the aura of the week. The activities and decorations were all based on this one word.

Kokomo is a nonsense word meant to express a special place where everyone is friendly and they all get along. From the looks of things, this seems most appropriate for 1988. So far the year has been great and with only eight more months to go, things can only get better.

Homecoming week is a memorable time in the life of high schoolers. A week of competitions, costumes, games, and all out fun! Even the teachers and advisors were involved. When the end of this special time neared, new memories were made at the first formal dance of the year. The Homecoming Dance. This year crowned queen was no other than Ronda Lee.

The Warrenton High volleyball team scrambles to "bump" the ball over the net during the Homecoming volleyball game.

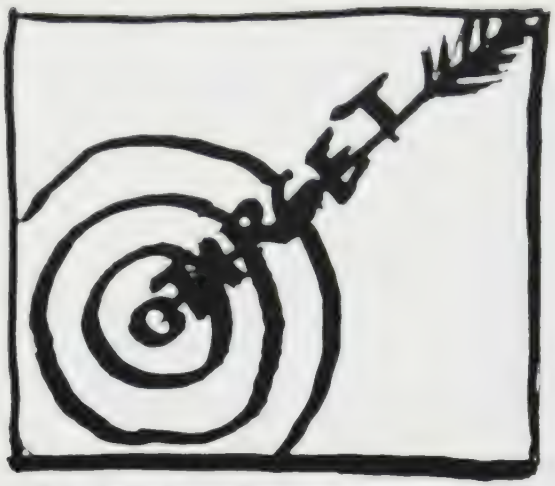
Alice Satterlee was this year's Dance Team advisor.



Target is a new club this year headed by Mrs. Dick and Mrs. Ramey. It was created to get students more aware and involved in the community. They tackle the problems they feel are important by using a group solving approach.
The members have sponsored many events throughout the year. They involve the memorial dance for Bobby Jorgenson, the giving tree, Christmas chain links, and penny drive. They also "targeted out" two students from each class once a month that they felt had special qualities.
It was also in charge of the second "Together We Can Make a Difference Day." The theme this year dealt with many different problems teenagers face, such as peer pressure, suicide, sexuality, and drugs and alcohol. The day was planned to be fun but also educational.

Trisha Ring, Shannon Knowles, Polly Rowland, Doug West, Rob Penttila rap their little hearts out

Grace Tamayo – Historian

Belen Camps says that she will always remember how small W.H.S. is and all the students, especially the Juniors, "They all are very good friends."

Belen is sixteen years old and is from the island Isla Baleazes. Her hometown is Palma De Mallorca, Spain.

She came to America to make more friends and to learn English better and that is exactly what she did.

W.H.S. will always remember her mischievous smile, her cute personality, and her dedication to sports.

She has beautiful black hair and a wonderful smile. Her name is Carmen Sacristan, a senior here at Warrenton High School. She is eighteen years old and from Madrid, Spain.

Carmen will always remember our wonderful rain, the Sadie Hawkins dance, and the Senior Skip Day, where she went swimming and relaxed in the hot tub.

What she likes most about Warrenton and W.H.S. is the beach and her good friend Mrs. Rupp. Carmen said that Mrs. Rupp is very funny and "cool".

You may see him jumping around or just overflowing with laughter. He carries a smile with him wherever he goes and seems to lighten a room whenever he's in it.

Jesus Mostaza is seventeen years old, a junior here at W.H.S., and is from, he believes, the most beautiful place in the world, Seville, Spain.

Jesus is very sociable and that is what he will always remember most about W.H.S., how the students are more open and friendly and spend more time socializing with the teachers.

IN REMEMBRANCE

Sometimes God takes away the most precious things in life - even people that mean the most. We all have good friends in our lives, some more special than others. Sometimes we have to bear the grief and try to understand. God works in strange ways. Ways we cannot understand now.

We will always remember them. Their humor, sensitivity, love for fun, and friendship will never be forgotten!

WE WILL LOVE YOU ALWAYS!!

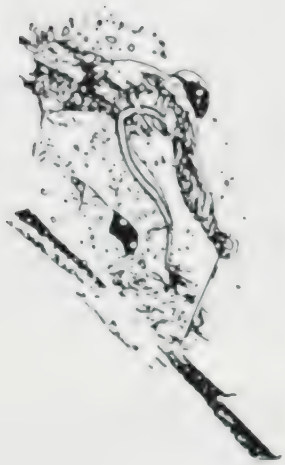
SKI TRIP



On March 25th most of the seniors arrived at the school and boarded the bus at 8:00am. We all stopped and had breakfast at the Oaktree Restaurant. Then we left and went to Mt. Hood. Before going up the hill the bus had to stop, so some people asked Mr. Ballman why we stopped, and he said that we had to put the chains on. When we got to the lodge some seniors went skiing and others went swimming. On our way home, we stopped at the Beaverton Town Center for supper. We then left and got back to the school at 9:30pm.

Everyone on the bus was having fun by singing, dancing and listening to music, or just talking

A few senior boys, who think they're strong, get off the bus to help Charlie put on the chains

These people look like they're tired

You look so comfortable Lisa.

Mike and Marc take a nap on the way up to Mt. Hood.

AFTER GRAD PARTY

Summer Monsen shows Dennis Sturgell how to really dance.

Eric Atkins is dazed as the realization of no longer having to go to high school again sinks in.

People watch in amazement as they see Cheri Wood limbo.

People laugh as Stephanie Rush attempts to limbo.

GRADUATION '89

Valedictorian, Anh Chi Le, gives her final speech at W.H.S.

Senior class president, Doug West, leads his mates in the finale of the graduation: the turn of the tassle.

Spanish foreign exchange student, Carmen Sacristan, walks nervously down the aisle in anticipantion for an American diploma.

Doug Dyer and Marille Braley smile happily for the camera.

Miss Clausen, Mrs. Rupp, Ms. Whitney, and Ms. Sisson show their enthusiasm for the coming event.

Dan Gallagher walks anxiously towards his ticket to the future.

Lisa Butcher walks proudly down the aisle.

CLASS OF 1989

Some of the senior guys get ready for the ceremony.

Marc Howatt and Doug Dyer try to conceal their excitement as they leave graduation commencement.

HOMECOMING

Jason Mickle and Kathy Ring enjoy the memorable Homecoming dance.

Some of the people chat casually while waiting for the dance to begin.

The crowd file through the door in anticipation.

Sonny Bruney and Robin Tanke smile excitedly before the dance begins.

Robert Rush and Angie Harris are overwhelmed by all the fun they're having at their first Homecoming dance.

Mike Robertson and Tami McGuire make quite the couple.
